Test Day in Parkhill on November 27 - Classes Cancelled!!

Reminder to all skaters that Tuesday, November 27 is test day in Parkhill. This means that there will be no sessions that day including the CanSkate session. Test day will begin approx 4:00 and finish at 8:00. Skaters are reminded to be at the arena 45 minutes before their scheduled test time.

Weather Cancellations

When we have inclement weather on a skating day, we make a decision by noon-hour, because of the volume of calls which need to be made. A phone tree will be in place and phone calls will be made. In all cases whether a cancellation is made or not, use your own discretion when traveling on winter roads. Everyone has a certain level of comfort when it comes to winter driving, so use your best judgement in all cases.
